

MAY COURT CLUB OF CHATHAM

WOMEN OF EXCELLENCE April 26, 2024

Eligibility

To be eligible for the May Court's Women of Excellence Award, nominees must fulfil all the following criteria:

- Be living and be 30 years of age or older (exception is the Young Woman of Excellence category where nominees must be 18-29 years of age)
- Have lived or worked in Chatham-Kent (not necessarily currently living or working here)
- Not be a current elected public office holder
- Be able to attend the Awards Dinner on April 26, 2024

Guidelines

Nominees will be evaluated within their category according to these guidelines:

- Recognition by peers/colleagues and/or general population as having reached a high level of accomplishment/expertise in her chosen field locally, provincially, nationally or internationally
- Demonstrated her ability to be a role model for others
- Contributed to the development of others through mentoring, coaching, teaching or by example
- Awards or Obstacles: Has the nominee received any awards? Has she overcome any obstacles to realize her achievements?
- Contributed to the community through development of new or existing programmes or services and has shown a commitment to service within the local, regional, national or international community.

Categories

Arts and Culture

Recognized for patronage of or contribution to the arts (visual, literary or performing), cultural diversity or heritage of the community.

Business and Professions

Recognized for achievement in a business or profession in the public, private or non-profit sector

Community and Volunteerism

Recognized for contribution through voluntary commitment to the development or enhancement of programmes or humanitarian efforts which benefit the local, regional, national or international community.

Education and Training

Recognized for contribution through the practice of teaching, research or administration in education, training and development or alternative learning programmes.

Health, Science and Technology

Recognized for contribution to the field of health and wellness, medicine, science or technology.

Young Woman of Excellence (18-29 years of age)

Recognized for commitment, achievement and leadership in her chosen environment, whether through school, community or workplace.

Nomination Process

Note the following regarding the Nomination Process for all Women of Excellence categories.

- Nomination forms, together with accompanying material addressing the Women of Excellence guidelines, should be mailed to:

Shirley Loyer
46 Stonegate Walk
Chatham, ON
N7M 0A3

Or

Email to MayCourtChathamWOE@gmail.com

- Nomination forms must be signed by both the nominee and the nominator
- Current members of the May Court Club of Chatham are not eligible to nominate or be nominated for the Women of Excellence Awards
- Receipt of all nominations received by the deadline (noon Friday, February 23, 2024) will be acknowledged by email (where available) or by a letter to the nominee and nominator

Selection Process

Note the following regarding the Selection Process for all Women of Excellence categories:

- All nomination forms will be treated in confidence
- The Selection Committee reserves the right to reclassify a nominee to a more appropriate category
- All nominees will be informed of the Committee's decisions starting on March 1, 2024
- Honourees will be announced at a media event

Nomination forms, together with the material to address the nominating guidelines, must be received by noon Friday, February 23, 2024 to qualify. The forms can be emailed to:

MayCourtChathamWOE@gmail.com

Or

Mailed to Shirley Loyer, 46 Stonegate Walk, Chatham, ON N7M 0A3

For further information call Shirley Loyer at 519-401-8905